Purpose/Mission/Responsibilities:

- To lead worship in the singing of hymns, psalms and service music at all Sunday and special services such as Thanksgiving and Ash Wednesday
- To provide musical concerts and events for the parish and as outreach to the greater Coronado community

Major Accomplishments:

- Choir presented selections from the opera "Nabucco" for Night in Babylon event hosted by several members of our church and opera board
- Appointed Michael Morgan as Sunday Morning Anthem Choir director, Janet Goggins as Assistant Director and Frank Hafner as our new Jubilate Choir Director
- Acquired new choir robes and cottas for the choir through the generosity of two private donors
- Brought outstanding young guest artists Valerie and Dominique Kim, Jazz musicians from CoSA, Julie Taylor from college and a combined high school choir from Minneapolis/St. Paul Minnesota, and the youth string group, "Engedi"
- Chase Morrin, outstanding young musician, artist, composer and pianist, served and continues to study as an intern under the direction of Donna Grandi
- Provided the fabulous Westwind Brass in concert and service for our Parish Advent party and provided food, hot cider, punch, desserts and music
- Featured the San Diego Children's Choir Christmas Concert, "Sing-a long" and reception
- Added music to the 8:00 a.m. Sunday morning service
- Jubilate choir assisted in leading hymns and the pageant during the 3:00 p.m. Christmas Eve service

Challenges:

- Altar space for choir, piano and instrumentalists
- The need for a larger budget to keep our Music Ministry vibrant and inclusive of talented and dedicated musicians year round
